

WINNING THE TRIPLE CROWN

FINANCE, PROGRAMS AND DEVELOPMENT –
TEAMING UP FOR THE WIN

Monica Enloe

JDRF

Michael Lemon

Center for Public Partnerships & Research – University of Kansas

Gina Knapp

Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater St. Louis

WELCOME

Setting Expectations

Monica Enloe

We are
SOCIAL CHANGE NAVIGATORS

Our work lies at the intersection of research, policy, and practice. We help others impact social change...for good.

We seek to optimize the well-being of children, youth, and families.

And like you, we envision

HEALTHY, HAPPY, THRIVING communities for us all.

The Why

kucppr.org

Research & Evaluation

Data Science

Social Innovation

How We Work

We are educators, social workers, researchers, psychologists, and sociologists working toward social change by...

Improving Practice

Advancing Knowledge and Informing Policy

kucppr.org

FOUR SIMPLE RULES

RULES OF ENGAGEMENT
CENTER FOR PUBLIC PARTNERSHIPS & RESEARCH UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS

BE ACCOUNTABLE

LEAVE IT BETTER THAN YOU FOUND IT

WORK WITH THE WILLING

FAIL FORWARD

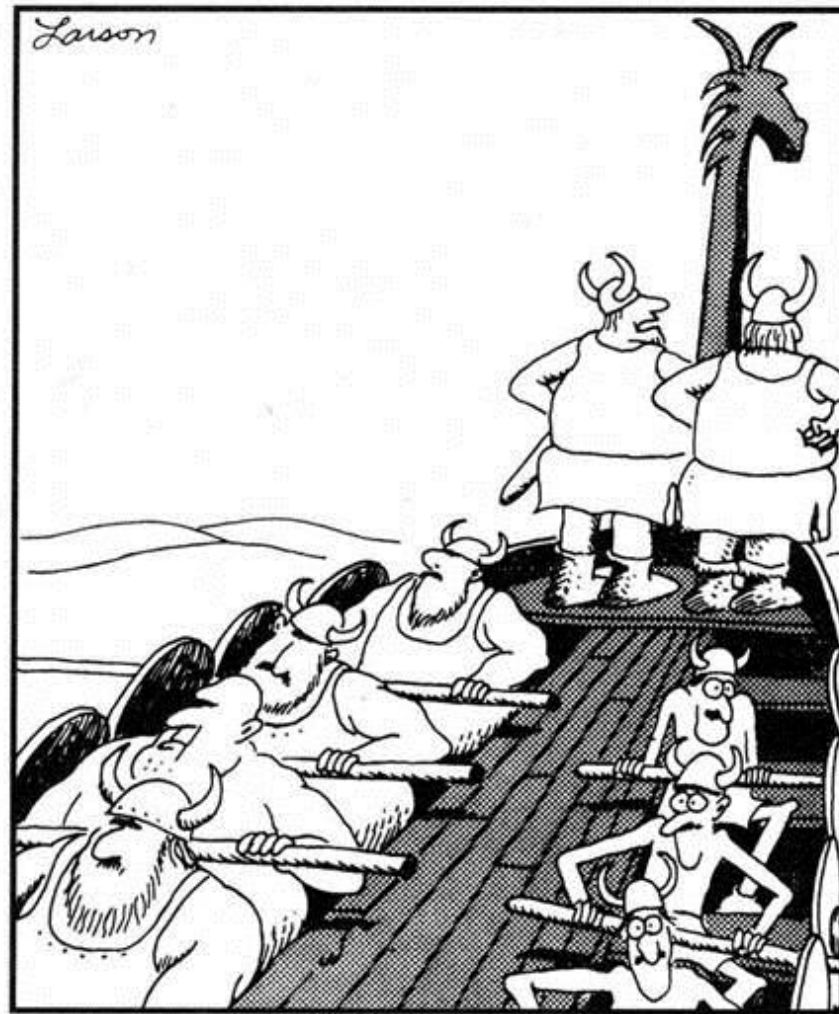

Understanding Hope

Part 1: The belief that the future can be different

Part 2: The belief that I can do something about it

DEPARTMENTAL COLLABORATION IS KEY

“I’ve got it, too, Omar ... a strange feeling like we’ve just been going in circles.”

Panel and audience questions

Monica Enloe – menloe@jdrf.org
Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation

Michael Lemon – mlemon1@ku.edu
Center for Public Partnerships & Research – University of Kansas

Gina Knapp – ginak@bgcstl.org
Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater St. Louis

CONTACT INFORMATION

©King Features Syndicate

THANK YOU