

An integrative global management experience for students to analyze geopolitics, international management strategies, and global value chains in a dynamic market.

Global Management Study Abroad in Taipei, Taiwan: Geopolitics & Global Value Chains

Application Deadline
Extended to December 12!

One of the four Asian Tigers or Asian Dragons, Taiwan is an economic power in the global market. Known for its industrial & high-tech manufacturing (especially semiconductors), it has become one of Asia's biggest traders. Students will have a unique opportunity to experience this island's exceptional history and culture in both casual and business environments while working on real global business issues facing companies today.

- 2nd Best Destination for Expats - (InterNations 2018)
- 13th Ease of Doing Business Index - (World Bank 2018)
- 15th Global Competitiveness Index - (WEF 2017-2018)
- 18th Global Entrepreneurship Index - (GEDI 2018)

Your Adventure: March 23 – March 30, 2019 (Spring Break)

- Michael Wizniak, Faculty Director
- Jae Jung, Accompanying Faculty
- Application and deposit due Dec 3, 2018
- Pre- and post-trip class sessions: Sat mornings (dates TBD)
- Limited enrollment. See application requirements!

*Scholarships are available
Open to Bloch graduate students.*

Famous for food and friendly people!

For more information, search for "Taipei" program at <https://info.umkc.edu/international/>